Storrington in Bloom Local Competition (residential categories) rules:

All entrants must be situated in the Parish of Storrington & Sullington.

The competition is free to enter and the judges decision is final.

The competition is run by Storrington in Bloom Working Group, a partnership of Greenfingers, Storrington Horticultural Society, Storrington Allotments Association, Friends of Meadowside and Storrington Conservation Society.

The addresses of shortlisted front gardens and community areas will be published after the judging to encourage the local residents and community to view.

A selection of entries may be shown to the judges of the South & South East in Bloom regional competition during their visit to Storrington on 11th July 2018.

Judges will be awarding points for: 1) Initial impact, 2) Structure and use of aspect and space, 3) Productivity, 4) Quality of husbandry and general health and 5) Potential of all year interest. Short-listing of entries will take place during July ready for final judging in August.

FRONT GARDEN - open to all private residential premises. Front gardens must be visible to passers by.

COMMUNITY AREA - open to groups of residents and tenants organisations wishing to nominate shared and communal gardens or groups of gardens in a street or estate. Please note areas marked as private cannot be considered as part of your entry.

Entries must be received by 5pm Thursday 28th June 2018.
